JUN 24 (WED) — JUL 7 (TUE). 1992 Reception: JUN24 (WED) P.M 5-7

전 세계적으로 이데올로기적 대립이 와해되고 세계는 하나라는 화해적인 분위기로 변화되어 가는시 대속에서, UKraina Lviv 출신의 젊은 화가 Igor Podolchak의 판화전시회를 마련하였습니다.
기법과 외부적 양식이 매우 견고하고 치밀하며 고도의 숙련도를 보이고 있는 그의 작품은, Dry point, etching, aquatint, Mezzotint 등을 복합적으로 사용하여 엄격히 절제된 톤으로써 모노크롬 화면을 우리에게 선보이고 있습니다.
이 전시회를 통하여 사회적, 정치적 역압과 통제속에서의 작품과 우리의 것을 다양한 방면에서 비교해 불 좋은 기회가 되기를 바랍니다.

Igor Podolchak is an artist from Russia who has been known to people in Korea since he was awarded at International Miniature Print Festival by Space Group of Korea in 1988. Though it is first time for his work to be introduced in Korea, there is no doubt that he was demonstrated his artistic talent for long.

His career is colorful. He frequently participated in international festival held in various places including America, Germany, and Spain. In addition, he had one-man exhibition seven times between 1988 and 1990 in several different contries such as Germany, Poland, and Spain.

The techniques and external patterns his print works expose is very firm and Sophisticated. His works carry realistically the classical composition, atmosperic effects, and sculptural fiqure modeling, all of which are based on the perspective of three dimensions. His works, however, express such things extraordinary and illusionary ways. This gives us a kind of fresh shock as well as feelings of strong tension.

Dry-point, etching, aquatint, and mezzotint contained in his print works bring about sharp and tense effects. These effects come from the combination of such techniques as etching, lineal carving, and dry-point, meanwhile the stress of monocrome, and overall composition tensed and controlled often apply to architectural background, for the strict horizontal-vertical division appears to prohibit arbitrary imagination and illusionary feelings.

Igor's work remind us of MARQUIS DE SADE who explored the sexual world, testing the extremity of human sensitivity. It is because his works bring us a psychological tension, Which describe ugly figures, human bodies with wrinkled and loose skin, and people revealing parts of body like breast and hip which symbolize sex.

All in all, Igor first and foremost, expresses social, political suppression and control. Next, he gives rise to sexual energy, and then with it he cuts, dissects, and anatomizes human image. Finally, he recreates images through ecstocy and holyness. One of his work showing an image of crucifixion and resurrection demonstrates this very boldly.

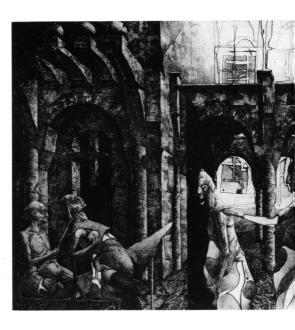

Through all these things Igor's works admit that there is a limit to the control of human nationality. He delivers this message taking advantage of sexual world. With this he tries to find a way to overcome all social and political ploblems. It is conflicting forms and contents, and contradictory concepts and thoughts that liberate imagenation.
